

OLMSTED COMMUNITY CHURCH
REVISED CONSTITUTION
LAST AMENDED DEC 14, 2008

ARTICLE 1 - NAME

- 1.1 The name of this church is the Olmsted Community Church.

ARTICLE 2 – PURPOSE

- 2.1 The purpose of this church is to bind together followers of Jesus Christ in order to share in the worship of God, to study the life and teachings of Jesus Christ, to lead others to a commitment to God through Jesus Christ, to express the gospel of love to the world by our missionary outreach and by our concern for all of the children of God, and to use as a sacred trust the blessings which God has bestowed upon us. This church shall provide services of public worship.

ARTICLE 3 – FAITH

- 3.1 We, the members of this church, believe in the living God at work in the world today and in Jesus Christ as revealed to us in the Bible. We find the Bible to be our sufficient rule of faith and practice.
- 3.2 Statement of Faith

We believe in God, the Eternal Spirit, who is made known to us in Jesus our brother, and to whose deeds we testify:

God calls the worlds into being, creates humankind in the divine image, and sets before us the ways of life and death.

God seeks in holy love to save all people from aimlessness and sin.

God judges all humanity and all nations by that will of righteousness declared through prophets and apostles.

In Jesus Christ, the man of Nazareth, our crucified and risen Lord, God has come to us and shared our common lot, conquering sin and death and reconciling the whole creation to its Creator.

God bestows upon us the Holy Spirit, creating and renewing the church of Jesus Christ, binding in covenant faithful people of all ages, tongues, and races.

God calls us into the church to accept the cost and joy of discipleship, to be servants in the service of the whole human family, to proclaim the gospel to all the world and resist the powers of evil, to share in Christ's baptism and eat at his table, to join him in his passion and victory.

God promises to all who trust in the gospel forgiveness of sins and fullness of grace, courage in the struggle for justice and peace, the presence of the Holy Spirit in trial and rejoicing, and eternal life in that kingdom which has no end.

Blessing and honor, glory and power be unto God.

ARTICLE 4 – GOVERNMENT

- 4.1 The Government of this church is vested in the body of believers who compose its membership. This church is subject to the control of no other ecclesiastical body; however, it maintains ties of interest and loyalty with its predecessors: the Congregational (now United Church of Christ) and the Methodist (now United Methodist) denominations. This church may also maintain and establish ties of interest and loyalty with other denominational and inter-denominational bodies.

ARTICLE 5 – MEMBERSHIP

- 5.1 Admission to Membership
- A. In extending an open-door welcome to all who desire to unite with this body of believers, membership in this church shall be granted to all persons publicly confessing belief in the living God as revealed to us in the Bible.
- B. Prospective members shall be given adequate instruction before being received into membership of this church.

ARTICLE 11 – PROPERTIES

- 11.1 Title to all property of every kind and nature heretofore or hereafter acquired shall be taken in the name of and all rights thereto vested in the Olmsted Community Church and shall be held and disposed of by the Cabinet thereof in accordance with the Articles of incorporation and Constitution, and in accord with the laws of the State of Ohio, and in particular under the agreements and trusts under which said property is acquired, and as hereinafter set forth.

- 11.2 Title to the Methodist Church property shall be conveyed to the northeast Ohio Conference of the Methodist Church, its successors and assigns, under such conditions, agreements and means as may be agreed upon by the Cabinet and said Conference or conveyed directly or reconveyed to the Olmsted Community Church under an agreement to the general effect that if in the event the Olmsted Community Church shall cease: (1) to provide a place of divine worship of evangelical character in the territory now consisting of the City of Olmsted Falls and Olmsted Township, Ohio or (2) to conduct such church in the manner of an interdenominational church associate with the Methodist and Congregational church organizations or their respective successors or with denominational affiliation or affiliations as shall have the approval of the Northeast Ohio Conference of the Methodist Church, its successors and assigns, then and in either event, title to the Methodist Church property shall revert to and become the unrestricted property of said Conference. But provided further that if said conditions are being fulfilled, the Olmsted Community Church shall have the power of sale and ownership generally provided that a proper declaration of trust or contract has been made to the effect that upon future failure to meet sad conditions then all property and funds of the Olmsted Community Church shall be divided equally between said Conference and the Ohio Conference of Congregational Christian Churches or their respective successors or assigns. The particular terms of said agreement and of the methods of handling said property and trusts shall be such as may be agreed upon between said Conference and said Cabinet.

- 11.3 Title to the Congregational Church property shall be conveyed to and vested in the Olmsted Community Church, but same shall be subject to the trust declared and set forth in this Article.

11.4 Title to all property of every kind and nature of the Olmsted Community Church heretofore or hereafter acquired and particularly the properties known as the Methodist and Congregational Church properties shall be held, owned, and controlled under the following trust, which is hereby declared, viz:

- A. If an in the event the Olmsted Community Church shall cease:
  - a. To provide a place of divine worship of evangelical character in the territory now consisting of the City of Olmsted Falls and Olmsted Township, Ohio; or
  - b. To conduct such church in the manner of an interdenominational church associated with the Methodist and Congregational Church organizations or their respective successors or with other denominational affiliation or affiliations as shall have the approval of the Northeast Ohio Conference of the Methodist Church, its successors and assigns, then and in the event of the happening of either event, then all property and funds of the Olmsted Community Church shall be divided equally between the northeast Ohio Conference of the Methodist Church and the Ohio Conference of Congregational Christian Churches or their respective successor and assigns; provided, however, that if said Methodist Church property has reverted to said Conference under the provision of Section 11.2 hereof, then the share of said Conference property under the provisions of this paragraph shall be diminished to the property so reverting and the share of the proper organization of the Congregational Church increased to the entire remaining property and assets of said Olmsted Community Church.

ARTICLE 12 – AMMENDMENTS

- 12.1 This Constitution may be amended by a vote of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the church members present at any Annual or Special Meeting, provided that a quorum is present, and that the notice of the meeting indicates that an amendment to the Constitution is to be submitted for a vote at the meeting.
- 12.2 A proposed amendment may be submitted by either:
  - A. A recommendation from the Cabinet by a majority vote (51%) of the Cabinet; OR
  - B. A written request from not less than twenty-five (25) members of the church submitted to the Cabinet Moderator.
- 12.3 Proposed amendments shall be made available in the Church office to all church members at least two (2) weeks prior to the meeting at which the amendment is to be voted upon, and shall also be posted in a conspicuous place in the church for at least two (2) weeks immediately prior to such a meeting.
